MITM Americas runs out of space for buyers

7. Oct 2011 von Editor's Office

One month and a half before the 17th edition of MITM Americas, Meetings and Incentive Travel Market, begins in San Salvador, El Salvador, the registration for buyers had to be closed due to the high demand of international buyers to participate in the event, which is sponsored by CORSATUR.

The buyers attending MITM Americas are decision makers that contract and organize international incentive travel, meetings, conferences, congresses and events, and which come mainly from Europe, United States and Latin America. These buyers are invited by MITM, after a strict selection process, to meet with international travel suppliers by individual and pre-established appointments.

Besides the up to 20 pre-established individual appointments that each participant has at MITM, there will be several activities for them as part of the social program, to increase the networking opportunities among the attendees.

MITM Americas will take place next November 16th to 18th.
